LEVEL GREEN

"And the sons of Gad came to present themselves before the Lord and Satan came also." The above quotation is found in the book of Uz 4500 years ago. Satan had power to "travel up and down through the earth" in that day and time deceiving the people, and such has been the case ever since. He will, and does, go wherever as many as two or three are gathered together. He enters our churches, makes all sorts of divisions and strife among the, so called, people of God in order to lead them off with his gang.

I wonder if those call christians ever heard the devil laugh when he gets up strife among them? He does laugh, and if you'll listen you can hear him too. I want those who profess to be informed in the matter--preachers for instance--to stand up and speak right out in meetin' and tell who or what the devil is anyway. Is he, she, it or they material or immaterial? Is he a creature or a being, if a creature who made him? These things do puzzle me exceedingly and I have a right to know if any one else does.

Rev. R. E. Todd preached Saturday and Sunday. He told our people just how to fight Satan, you no doubt remember that he has been running business at the old stand (church) for about three years and he got in some big work too during the time, but if our people will lay aside every weight and the besetting sin and fight Satan on a gospel line he can soon be put to flight. Say, preachers, does every man have the same besetting sin, or does Dick have one thing, Tom another and Harry something else?

Joe Kenner, from Egypt, came to Possum Hollow Sunday. Joe wants a wife, I think, though I don't know. John M. Hurst, who has been an invalid for five years, was at church Sunday, looks well but can't travel on foot at a very rapid gate. Say, friend repnbs, have you ever heard of the Peabody contest for the Governorship in Colorado? How Adams was trying to steal old Pea's office when he handed it over to a third party to make it safe? Come now, "onest injin," say boys, is it any worse for the dems to steal in Kentucky than it is for the repubs to steal in Colorado. Honesty says no, but indeed it do make a big difference as to whose ox were hooked, dont it? O how hard it is to push self outen the way in pollytix, religion and personal matters, where self interest or prejudice steps in and asks to be recognized. Prejudice is a strong besetting sin, if not the besetting sin of the human family, and one of the strongest weapons of Satan, and he uses it well too.

One week of wet weather has put our farmers far behind, but a few warm, windy days will soon put them all to work. Plant plenty of Irish taters again. Why are they called "Irish" taters, when they are strictly American as are tobacco, tomatoes, &c?

No stir in cattle, sheep, hogs, and other brutes of creation. Work horses and mules are scarce and high. Corn 65c per bushel. Jack Towery remains about as usual, though so much damp weather is a pull back to all invalids. The Somerset Journal is one of the best semi-weeklies in Kentucky, and we do hope it will not give even the repubs room to say that it is defending Hargis & Co. Drowning men will grab at straws, and the Republican press will use "any old thing" to draw the minds of the people from Taylor & Co. Why not let the judges and juries try these men and decide from the evidence--guilty or not guilty.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick, the American woman who served 15 years in an English prison on the charge of killing her husband, gave her deposition in Washington to be used at the trial of the suit of her mother, the Baroness Von Roques, to recover certain lands in Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia which she sold some years ago to David W. Armstrong, formerly of Kentucky.

Monsieur Rouvier is said to strongly approve the establishment in Paris of a Franco-American financial institution. The action of the heads of certain American insurance companies, in steadying the Bourse by purchasing $4,000,000 of rentes in a day during a period of financial stress, while the religious agitation was at its height, made a great impression on the French Premier.

The Court of Appeals adjourned for the January term, after disposing of a number of important cases. Judgment of the Harrison circuit court, sentencing Curtis Jett to be hanged for the murder of James Cockrill at Jackson, was reversed and the case remanded for a new trial. The petition for a rehearing was overruled in the case of Caleb Powers, which goes back to the Scott Circuit Court for a fourth trial.

Mrs. Chadwick was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary as a result of her recent conviction in the Federal court at Cleveland. By good behavior the time may be reduced to six years and four months. She appeared to be resigned to her fate when she appeared in court for sentence. An appeal will be taken and her case will be fought through all the courts. Other charges against her will be filed away and not revived unless on appeal the present conviction should be set aside.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says Russia has outlined a plan on which she is willing to enter upon peace negotiations with Japan. A telegram received in London from a Northern European capital says Russia has asked Delcasse to act as intermediary and open negotiations with Japan. Delcasse, it is stated, has signified his willingness, but wants the co-operation of Lord Lansdowne. The latter refuses to discuss the subject. No information confirmatory of these several reports has reached Washington, but diplomats say they would not be surprised at such action on the part of Russia.

C. E. Hands, the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail, says that he has inspected the Russian gold reserve, which the Times refused to do after it had been invited to make an examination by the Russian Minister of Finance. Mr. Hands says he found it a "stupendously uninteresting, tedious and depressing spectacle" of bags of coin and gold ingots. He did not make any attempt to test the amount beyond selecting a bag and trying it; it was full of ten ruble pieces, but he adds: "It is perfectly clear that an immense amount of gold is stored in the vaults." He is satisfied to believe that there is $25,000,000 there.

The stockholders of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, at a special meeting held Wednesday, authorized the issue of $50,000,000 additional bonds. Out of a total of 600,000 shares 400,000 shares were voted, and no votes were cast against the proposition. None of the Eastern stockholders or Directors was present. To secure the bond issued a mortgage was executed for $50,000,000 on the line of railroad extending from Cincinnati by way of Knoxville to Atlanta, Ga., and now known as the Atlanta, Knoxville and Cincinnati division of the L. & N., which is nearing completion. It was the intention of the Board of Directors to request the stockholders to pass upon a resolution assenting to the purchase of the South and North Alabama Railroad Company. However, since the last Directors' meeting litigation has been instituted by one of the stockholders of the South and North Alabama Railroad to prevent the consolidation of this line with the Louisville & Nashville, and a restraining order has been issued by the courts. In view of this fact a resolution was adopted postponing action on this matter until the regular meeting, to be held in Louisville in October. The South and North Alabama road is now, and has been for many years, operated by the Louisville and Nashville.

CITIZENS BANK -OF- BRODHEAD, KENTUCKY.

It is with pleasure we desire to call your attention to the Citizens Bank, of Brodhead, Ky., and state some of the advantages that are gained by being one of our depositors. The Bank began business on January 7th, 1905, and its growth up to the present time has been remarkable and very satisfactory to the stockholders. We enjoy the distinction of being the only bank in this part of the State that began paying 3 per cent. on deposits, believing that when a person left as much as $100.00 or more on deposit for six months without checking, that they should derive some of the benefits. We are equipped with the best burglar proof, screw-door safe that could be made, and people have come miles to see it and pronounced it the most wonderful piece of mechanism they had ever seen. The safe is made of the best steel with a screw door one foot in diameter, and set within the door is the time movements by which the door is locked. The safe is set within a brick wall that is 23 inches thick. We also have a vault door that closes with twenty bolts and weighs 3,000 pounds. We most cordially ask you to visit the bank and examine it for yourself and see if it is not a safe depository. Remember we pay 3 per cent. on as much as $100.00 or more when left six months.

We offer to the people a safe and conservative banking system. We ask you to give us your business and we guarantee a pleasant and profitable relation.

Trusting to have the pleasure of meeting you personally, I am,

Yours very truly,

J. W. HUTCHESON, Cashier.

Dr. E. J. Brown, of Stanford, made a professional visit in our section Sunday. W. G. Proctor remains in very poor health. F. L. Thompson, the general salesman, representing Louisville Grocery Co., made his regular bi-weekly visit to the merchants in our section Tuesday. Wm. Miller and family, who recently migrated to Bridgeport, Ind., have written to several of their friends expressing pleasure with their new home and are getting along nicely. Oat sowing is progressing nicely and a good acreage will be sown. Our wheat crop is very promising, with bright prospects of an increased yield. The peach crop will be a complete failure as not a blossom has made its appearance in our section. Other fruit crops seem to be alright so far. Mr. A. L. Payne is closing out his stock of merchandise and expects to leave our section within the next week or two. He is undecided as to what business he will engage in after closing his store. Messrs. Simeon Denny and Wade H. Proctor, are rejoicing over the arrival of new girls in their homes.

The rule or ruin methods adthe point, where every man who uses such methods, may in time expect to land.

Supreme Court declined to express an opinion, but the Attorney Gen-objection to his doing so, and Sen-vacant speakership.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Times has the following concerning our congress-of his vacation to a comprehensive analysis of the proposed railway rate legislation. Mr. Gilbert is another member who has not decided whether he will be a candidate for re-election. Whether he decides to run again or not, he may spend some of his sparetime on a lecturing tour."

he was given the death sentence for the murder of James Cockrill. Jett is now in the penitentiary serving on the grounds, first, that the testiincompetent and prejudicial to the Jesus the Door: John 14:6 Rph. 2:18.

Comment and Suggestive Thought.
Prof. E. H. Plumptre, in his "Lazarus and Other Poems," suggests that there is strong reason to believe that Lazarus was one of the Jewish rulers; that he was the rich young ruler (Mark 10:17-22) whom Jesus loved, and to whom he bade to sell all he had and follow Him, but who at the time refused to do it. With this family was one of the houses of the homeless Jesus. They loved Jesus, and Jesus loved them, and He visited them often than any other family. Not more than five or six weeks before this, at the Feast of Dedication, Jesus was their guest, and Mary sat at His feet to learn, while Martha was busy with her household duties for His entertainment (Luke 10:38-42). After Jesus left, Lazarus was taken sick, "it may be by one of the sudden, sharp and frequently fatal fevers of Palestine," such as that from which Jesus delivered Peter's wife's mother, and it is implied that the assault had assumed an alarming form.

V. 22. "Fell down at His feet," and spoke the same words as those with which her sister had greeted Jesus. The thought must have been continually in her mind, and often repeated to one another, "Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died."

V. 23. "He groaned in the spirit," Groaned, not in outward expression, but in his inmost soul. The Greek word for "groaned" expresses a strong feeling of indignation mingled with grief. "He beheld death in all its fearfulness, as the wages of sin; and all the world's woes, of which this was but a little sample, rose up before his eyes, all the mourners, and all the graves were present to him."
"And was troubled," Greek, "troubled himself," "precisely as a man "distressing himself," or "troubling himself," or "making himself anxious."— Exp. Greek Test.

V. 25. "Jesus wept." Shed tears, wept silently, an entirely different word from "cry" and "weeping" of the mourners in vs. 21, 22. It is well that this short sentence should be in a verse by itself, the shortest verse in the Bible, but one of the most blessed.

V. 26. "Behold how He loved him!"
The word for "love" is the more passionate word used in v. 3 by the sisters.
The higher word used of Jesus in v.
5 by the Evangelist, laying emphasis on friendship.

V. 27. "Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind?" This was the last, most widely known, and most marvelous miracle which had been brought in Jerusalem only two or three months before. The inference was natural and just.

V. 28. "Cometh to the grave." R. V., "tomb." "It was a cave." "The numerous sepulchers which skirt the valleys on the north, east, and south of Jerusalem, exhibit for the most part one general mode of construction."

V. 29. "He hath been dead four days," and, therefore, Martha inferred naturally that decay had begun.

V. 30. "Said I not unto thee." He had confessed, repeated to Martha what He had said to His disciples (v. 4). "If thou didst believe," Trust in the goodness, and power, and promises of Jesus.
"See the glory of God." They would see a work of God which would manifest His power and love to men, which would exalt His Son as the Messiah, and bring divine blessings to the family, to His disciples, and to the world.

V. 31. "Jesus lifted up His eyes." A natural, simple, but expressive act of worship.

V. 32. "Because of the people which stand by I said it." So that they would know that His power was from God, and recognize His relation to God.

V. 33. "He cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth." As one would speak loud to awaken a sleeper. It was loud in order that all the people who had come to the tomb might realize whence the power came.

V. 34. And he that was dead came forth bound hand and foot with grave-clothes." It was the Jewish custom to wrap the dead comparatively loosely in a winding sheet or shroud, which would have impeded, though not prevented, arising and walking.—About.

V. 35. "Many" believed on him." Lazarus henceforth was a perpetual sermon on the loving power of Christ.

Arrow Points.
The atheist cannot find God for the same reason that the thief cannot find the policeman.

When a man's heart is in Heaven it does not suffer from palpitation every time it sees the collection coming.

The extent of your friendship depends not on the people who love you, but on the number of people you can love.

It's not much use talking to the hungry about the Kingdom of Heaven until you show them the kindness of earth-

The Winchester Democrat wisely remarks:

"It is all very well to keep up appearances and to 'put the first foot foremost,' but this thing of bringing up children to think that they must always be 'dressed up' and look like children of wealthy parents when the parents are in very moderate circumstances, is the cause of a great deal of misery.

Indulgent parents sometimes find too late that their course has resulted in inculcating a love of display and a contempt of work and common things. The boy or the girl who believes the main aim in life is the acquirement of money or the wearing of fine clothes is in rather a dangerous position when the parents are too poor to satisfy the demands of their fastidious fancy. Poor people should teach their children that there is no disgrace in wearing poor clothes and if they want better they must go out and hustle for them.

Geo. E. Painter, Deacons. JOHN CHERRY,

James G. Yaden, of London, recently nominated for representative by the Republicans of that district, is seriously ill at the dormitory of the Sue Bennett Memorial College, at which school he has been engaged as teacher. He was operated on for mastoiditis and a portion of his skull removed. His recovery is thought to be doubtful.

W. T. Schater, our tobacco man, is very much encouraged with his showing for a splendid crop of tobacco. It is to be hoped that some of our farmers can be interested in the raising of tobacco, when the fact has been clearly demonstrated that Rockcastle is a tobacco producing county and that one acre of tobacco is worth several acres of corn, such as is usually raised.

Dr. D. McDonald, syndical representative of Presbyterian schools and churches for Kentucky, was here yesterday and let the contract to F. Krueger & Sons, for the additions to the dormitory and parsonage. Twelve rooms to be added to dormitory, in which building will be the girls industrial department. The work will begin at once so that the building will be completed by the opening of school in September.

Judge Hobson of the Court of Appeals last week, re-instated an injunction which had been dissolved by the lower court in the case of Hill against the Democratic County Committee of Lincoln county. Hill was declared the nominee for sheriff upon the face of the returns at a recent primary. His opponent, who is contesting, secured a temporary mandatory injunction and also the consent of a majority of the county committee to a recount of the ballots. The circuit court dissolved the injunction but the ruling of Judge Hobson re-instated it.

The application blanks for the much talked of and much needed mail route from Mt. The blanks are at this office and those who will be benefited by and are interested in the establishment of the new route, will please call and sign the applications. If the people living along the line, want this service, some interest on your part must be manifested.

The case against Charley Martin, charged with complicity in the killing of Marshal Haley, at Lebanon Junction, will be called at Shepherdsville today, but as much difficulty was had in getting a jury in Barbour case, which is now before the court, it is very probable that Martin's case will not come for trial at this term.

Make Money In California

If you are industrious and capable you can make money there. The big ranches are breaking up into small farms that need more workers to care for the increased product. The towns and cities are prosperous because the country is prosperous. There are great valleys of the richest soil in America waiting for you. If you have a little capital you can own one of these small farms yourself, or you can rent one on shares and pay for it out of the product in a few years. We will send you descriptive booklets and folders giving full information about the money-making opportunities for every member of the family.

You want to see what the country is really like; you can go there, work a few months, enjoy the delightful climate, the flowers, fruit and scenery, and earn enough to pay your expenses both ways by taking advantage of the

WILLIAMSBURG.

If all the reports are true there will be two weddings in this place very soon.—Mrs. Prudie Watkins, the widow of our late Circuit Clerk, and her daughter, Miss Jennie, have moved to Zanesville, O.—The county is having two splendid stone walks laid through the courtyard to the cur house. The leading to the south front and the other to the north front. The stone is from a quarry near town and can be cut in any size and shape and looks like sawed stone on its face.—Sandra before her marriage was killed in this county and it was reported that she died in a hospital.—Last Sunday about ten thousand people attended church and several persons were baptized in the Cumberland, but no report has come in on nor no comment has been made of this fact.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. For Thin Babies Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If you baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ingentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

Large farms are not always economically managed. But it is said of the big farm of Davis Rankin, of Missouri, that the owner makes it pay. He has 25,000 acres, 23,115 acres of which are under cultivation. It is estimated that it takes more than $125,000 a year to run it. Mr. Rankin employs about 300 men and uses 700 horses and mules in his farm work. Rankin's greatest pride is his corn field. It runs a mile and a half and is a mile wide. He is the man who has said he would never sell a bushel of corn he produced. He feeds it to live stock and markets it that way. He says it is the only way to get its value. The value of cattle sold annually from the Rankin farm amounts to around $300,000.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.
For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and poison the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.
